

The resolution further recognizes the significant contributions of two other important institutions in the South Pacific region—the East-West Center in Hawaii and the Pacific Islands Conference.

In 1960, the U.S. Congress established and funded the East-West Center to foster mutual understanding and cooperation among the governments and peoples of the Asia-Pacific region. Mr. Speaker, the East-West Center has done an outstanding job with this mission, and in particular has significantly promoted positive and deeper relations between the United States and the South Pacific nations.

In 1980, the East-West Center facilitated the establishment of the Pacific Islands Conference, the only regional organization to bring together all heads of government in the South Pacific without regard to political status.

Meeting every 3 years, the Pacific Islands Conference of Leaders identifies and targets critical areas of research in furtherance of the region's trade, environment, and development. This research is subsequently conducted by the East-West Center's Pacific Islands Development Program.

With U.S. support, the efforts of the East-West Center and the Pacific Islands Conference have contributed to progress for responsible and sustained economic development in the South Pacific region.

Mr. Speaker, I would ask our colleagues to join us in adopting this worthy legislation which reaffirms the value of the historically close ties between the United States and the Pacific Island nations, and calls for continued U.S. engagement in the affairs of the South Pacific region.

I would urge passage by the House of House Concurrent Resolution 189.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Speaker, I want to thank the delegate from American Samoa for his supportive remarks and for his continued hard work on behalf of the Pacific communities. I want to thank our distinguished chairman of our Subcommittee on Asia and the Pacific, Mr. BEREUTER, for his supportive work on this measure.

Mr. Speaker, I have no further request for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA. Mr. Speaker, I have no further requests for time.

Mr. Speaker, I urge adoption of this resolution, I yield back the balance of my time.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New York [Mr. GILMAN], that the House suspend the rules and agree to the concurrent resolution, House Concurrent Resolution 189, as amended.

Mr. FALEOMAVAEGA. Mr. Speaker, on that I demand the yeas and nays.

The yeas and nays were ordered.
